

2025-2026 LEADERSHIP LOGAN

PROGRAM INFORMATION & APPLICATION

Logan County, rich in heritage, tradition, and natural beauty, offers residents an array of services, entertainment, and opportunities for growth and fellowship. Come, learn about the great wealth of natural resources, people, and organizations that make the quality of life in Logan County second to none! Leadership Logan is for the individual who wants to:

- Learn more about Logan County
- Help improve our quality of life
- Become more involved and informed
- Work with a spirit of unity and cooperation toward the overall goal of preservation and progress
- Evaluate the climate for doing business

2025-2026 SESSION SCHEDULE

Each student will be required to attend eight all-day sessions, once per month. We will also have an orientation session and graduation! You will also be required to attend six government and/or civic meetings throughout the class year. Organizational meetings, in which the students are already involved, do not count toward the six meetings. You will also be responsible for a service project, planned and implemented by your entire class, to benefit Logan County in some way. Transportation is carpooling among classmates. Lunch will be provided for every all-day session. The fee per participant is $400.00.

Sessions will be held on the 3rd Tuesday of each month, from 8:00 am until 4:00 pm, beginning in August and ending in April. You will have fun, information-packed sessions to include Agriculture Day, Education Day, Tourism Day, Small Business Day, Government/Judicial Day, Human Services Day, Chamber/LEAD/Industry Day, and Environmental Day.

Please mark your calendars now for the following dates:

Orientation: July 22, 2025

All-day Sessions: Aug 19, 2025, Sept 16, 2025, Oct 21, 2025, Nov 18, 2025, Jan 20, 2026, Feb 17, 2026, Mar 17, 2026, Apr 21, 2026.

Graduation: May 19, 2026

Registration limited to 1 representative per member organization/business per year. Member business must be in good standing. Don't delay your registration! Space is limited to accommodate small groups for a more personal experience.
